

NCRWA Virtual Training Participation Safety Policy

To ensure the safety of participants and maintain the integrity of NCRWA training programs, the following Policy applies to all individuals attending virtual or hybrid training sessions.

1. Prohibition on Attending from a Motor Vehicle

Participants may not attend, view, listen to, or otherwise participate in an NCRWA virtual class from a motor vehicle, regardless of whether the vehicle is moving or parked or whether the participant is the driver or a passenger.

2. Enforcement and Consequences

NCRWA reserves the right to remove a participant when NCRWA staff or the instructor reasonably determines that the participant has violated this Policy or is engaging in unsafe behavior. A participant removed for violating this Policy will not receive continuing education or certification school credit and will not be entitled to a refund.

3. Attendance and Engagement Requirements

To receive continuing education and/or certification school credit, participants must:

- Attend from a non-moving location that is not a motor vehicle
- Be able to fully participate in polls, discussions, and verification checks
- Remain visually and audibly present for the entirety of the class

4. Acknowledgment of Policy

By registering for or attending an NCRWA virtual or hybrid training session, participants acknowledge and agree to comply with this Policy.

Effective September 1, 2026